1. An employee of the French Embassy at Belgrade, a man named Kostich, has been arrested.
2. Airforce officers of General Simovich's group were also arrested and imprisoned. Among them were Colonel Dusan Radovich, commander of the airforce in Cairo during the war, Major Gisa Stanisavljevich and Lieutenant Colonel Dusan Lecich. General Voja Petrovich committed suicide before he was arrested.
3. A great number of Belgrade high school students were arrested when a student secret organization entitled the "National Guard of King Peter II" was discovered. Eight members of the organization were sentenced and shot after a trial. One of the eight was an 18 year old girl.
4. Major engineer Ljuba Illich, reported to be the designer of the IKA-3 plane, wants to escape from Yugoslavia. He is already living "illegally" in Belgrade, because he refused to give the designs of his new type plane to the Comintern. The plane was constructed before the war.
